

links to videos on birds

National Geographic

Go to the tab for little kids. I couldn't get the games to play on my ipad. They do work on the computer. But the videos of Animal Teachers and Animal and Pets are great. There are lots you can purchase. But the free videos are worth visiting this website.

- Go to Videos and look for Animals and Pets then go to Birds.

The videos relating to a bird investigation are:

- ❖ <http://video.nationalgeographic.com/video/kids/animals-pets-kids/birds-kids/condor-kids/>

Birds: Condor

Scientists are trying to keep the condors from becoming extinct.

- ❖ <http://video.nationalgeographic.com/video/kids/animals-pets-kids/birds-kids/bird-dipper-kids/>

Birds: Dipper This video shows how the Dipper feeds on insects in a shallow river using its pointed beak.

- ❖ <http://video.nationalgeographic.com/video/kids/animals-pets-kids/birds-kids/wood-duck-babies-kids/>

Birds: Duck pond: Wood duck babies are born in trees. Watch these newborns make the big jump from a tree to the pond below.

- ❖ <http://video.nationalgeographic.com/video/kids/animals-pets-kids/birds-kids/penguin-emperor-parenting-kids/>

Birds: Emperor Penguin Families

Emperor penguin parents overcome starvation, freezing weather, and hungry leopard seals to keep their chicks well fed.

- ❖ <http://video.nationalgeographic.com/video/kids/animals-pets-kids/birds-kids/falcon-bat-kids/>

Bird: Falcon

This is a video of a falcon hunting and feeding her babies.

- ❖ <http://video.nationalgeographic.com/video/kids/animals-pets-kids/birds-kids/swarms-kids/>

Birds: Flamingo This video shows flamingo and other small birds in swarms. In addition, there is a video of butterflies in swarms.

- ❖ <http://video.nationalgeographic.com/video/kids/animals-pets-kids/birds-kids/rhea-lesser-kids/>

Birds: Lesser Rheas. A Rheas is a type of Ostrich. The males are the doting parents and look after the young.

- ❖ <http://video.nationalgeographic.com/video/kids/animals-pets-kids/birds-kids/heron-blue-kids/>

Birds: Great Blue Herons

The great blue heron is the most widespread heron in North America

- ❖ <http://video.nationalgeographic.com/video/kids/animals-pets-kids/birds-kids/hawk-harris-kids/>

links to videos on birds

Birds: Harris Hawks

These hawks live in the Sonoran Desert and work together to get their dinner.

- ❖ <http://video.nationalgeographic.com/video/kids/animals-pets-kids/birds-kids/osprey-babies-debut-eorg-kids/>

Birds: Osprey

An osprey mom, named Rachel, feeds some freshly caught fish to her just-hatched babies atop her nest at the Audubon Camp on Hog Island, Maine. Ospreys rely almost entirely on fish for food, so the nest is near the water. Ospreys mate for life, and Rachel's partner, named Steve, also appears in this video, helping mom raise the chicks.

- ❖ <http://video.nationalgeographic.com/video/kids/animals-pets-kids/birds-kids/stork-shoebill-kids/>

Birds: Shoebill Stork (Freaky Beak)

The shoebill stork has a huge honker, perfect for catching its favorite meal: lungfish. Get a snootful of this bizarre bird in this video.

- ❖ <http://video.nationalgeographic.com/video/kids/animals-pets-kids/birds-kids/vulture-egyptian-egg-kids/>

Birds: Vulture

Jackals may not be able to figure out how to get at the delicious ostrich egg, but the Egyptian vulture has a surprising solution—use a tool!

- ❖ <http://video.nationalgeographic.com/video/kids/animals-pets-kids/birds-kids/hummingbird-kids/>

Birds: Hummingbirds

Get up close and personal with these amazing birds in this video. Shows them feeding from a variety of flowers.

- ❖ <http://video.nationalgeographic.com/video/kids/animals-pets-kids/birds-kids/us-oil-spill-pelicans-vin-kids/>

Birds: Pelicans

Relocated Gulf Pelicans "Enjoying" Texas

July 19, 2010—Some Louisiana pelicans, oiled by the Gulf of Mexico spill, have been cleaned and relocated to Aransas National Wildlife Refuge in Texas, where they "really seemed to be enjoying themselves."

Growing up wild

Lots of great ideas. Be sure to look at the link Show Me Wildlife. Many of the movies will play on an ipad. The page numbers on the movie links relate to the Growing Up Wild book.

- <http://www.arkive.org/bald-eagle/haliaeetus-leucocephalus/video-08b.html>

Birds: Bald Eagle

There are several videos of bald eagles feeding.

- <http://www.arkive.org/american-white-pelican/pelecanus-erythrorhynchos/video-08a.html>

Birds: Pelicans

There are several videos of pelicans feeding.